PRESIDENT'S REPORT

By Ray Storms

For those of you who get our emails, you have already received an update from me on the topic of "Think First. Post After." However, not all of our members have signed up for our emails, and the issue of protecting yourself on social media is very important these days.

Nationally, there is intense scrutiny of the social media activity of law enforcement officers. The same is true for retired officers. Across the country, news outlets are publishing stories that focus on offensive social media posts by both active officers AND retired law enforcement officers. For active employees, they've faced severe discipline and in many cases termination.

We're advising you to stop and think before you post. This includes posts in those supposedly "private" groups. Those groups are never private and have been repeatedly exposed around the country.

Recently, the focused on retired officers has been even more intense. While a retiree may not get terminated for their social media posts, they may attract significant, in some cases national, news media attention and potential embarrassment.

But the stakes for retired law enforcement officers do not end with personal exposure. The previous cases you worked on may be impacted as well. Earlier this year in Los Angeles, a retired LAPD detective got into a verbal altercation with an African American man. The retired officer used a racial epithet, and it was captured on video. The District Attorney is now reviewing all of that officer's cases resulting in conviction to determine if racial bias was a factor. It could result in convicted criminals getting a new trial or released. This is based on new state law.

What should you look out for? Everything. Be mindful of what you repost/retweet/share from your account. Be careful of what you "like" and monitor the comments made on any posts you make. A racist or otherwise offensive comment made by anyone else on one of your posts can reflect poorly on you.

What issues are being scrutinized? You should use caution when posting on a wide array of issues. Obviously, anything racist will be met with zero tolerance, as will attacks against women, sexual orientation, or religion. Any posts where the author celebrates or encourages violence against a suspect or any group of people will be exposed as well.

We are not telling you what to post or what to do on social media. We are informing you of the risks that exist and are encouraging you to be mindful of them for your own protection.

So, use social media wisely, and please think before you post.

THE BOND OF OUR FIRE FAMILY: SAYING GOODBYE TO CHIEF DICK WATTENBARGER

Brothers and Sisters,

As you may recall, Chief Dick Wattenbarger passed away on February 15, 2021, at the age of 81, following a long battle with cancer. A courageous fighter he was!!! When Dick and his wife Sue, moved to their new home in Peoria, AZ, in January 2020, the Peoria firefighters quickly learned of Dick's illness and immediately jumped in to help them organize their move, which included setting up Dick's garage workshop. Dick and Sue became friends with the Peoria firefighters, building a strong bond. As Dick's illness progressed, the crews assigned to Peoria Fire Department's Station 196, would provide professional assistance through Service Calls, and made frequent social visits as well, right up until Dick's passing, and continue to be there for Sue.

Fire Chief Bobby Ruiz

Peoria, AZ 85345

Honorable Mayor Carlát and Chief Bobby Ruiz,

On behalf of the active and retired members of the San Jose Fire Department, I would like to acknowledge the professional and caring acts of kindness that our fellow Firefighter, Chief Richard Wattenbarger, received from the Peoria Fire Department.

Chief Wattenbarger, who passed away on February 15, 2021, had been battling a variety of cancers for the last several years. When he moved to Peoria, he was greeted by an outpouring of kindness from your members. This included many visits from them to check on his wellness, as well as arriving at his home to help set up his garage workshop.

We would like to especially acknowledge the following individuals for their assistance:

Firefighter Paramedic Isaac Reaves
Firefighter Gilbert Chavarria
Haz Tech Ben Robinson
Firefighter Charles Tanner
Captain Roy Noriega
Captain Steve Brandell
Captain Bob Groholski

Often, in the fire service, we speak of community outreach and customer service. The members of your Fire Department are fantastic ambassadors to this philosophy. All of us in San Jose are truly grateful for the assistance and support that Chief Wattenbarger and his wife Sue received.

Sincerely,

Matt Tuttle
President, San Jose Fire Fighters, Local 230

A few of our retired members of Local 230, wanted to recognize the Peoria Fire Department for their kindness, so the story was shared with Local 230. Local 230's President, Matt Tuttle, then forwarded a letter to the Peoria Fire Chief and Mayor, praising the compassion and dedication of their firefighters, for their unselfish assistance to one of our own without any hesitation whatsoever. We have shared President Tuttle's letter as part of this message.

An additional acknowledgement to the firefighters of Peoria Fire Department Station 196, was in the form of a plaque. On Thursday April 8, 2021, the plaque was presented to Station 196 at shift change, by Sue Wattenbarger and Michael McGue, SJFD, (ret), Michael and his wife Charla live in Dick and Sue's neighborhood. A few pictures of the presentation, along with a picture of the plaque are being shared here as well.

Local 230's letter, the plaque, along with the pictures, speaks volumes to who we are as a "Fire Family" and the bond we will always have in this, the greatest profession. The Wattenbarger Family is forever grateful to all those who visited, made phone calls, sent greeting cards and emails. Everyone staying in contact, kept Dick laughing, joking and smiling all the way through!!

Our Association would like to acknowledge, and thank, Local 230 President Matt Tuttle, and the following retired members, (and their families), for the support and care provided to Dick and Sue along their journey, and/or participation, in this effort to recognize the support provided by the Peoria FD. Thank you Ski Bartosiewicz, Walter Bugna, Kevin Conant, Ken Heredia, Michael McGue, Paul Schuller and Gary Weekley.

Rest in peace Deputy Chief Dick Wattenbarger, we thank you for your service.
